

House Resolution No. 1635

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives feel it is altogether fitting and proper to pause from time to time to recognize individuals and organizations that have contributed to the welfare of this great state and its citizens; and

Whereas, Hannah Kinder, a senior at Cape Central High School, in Cape Girardeau, Missouri, has distinguished herself athletically and academically; and

Whereas, Hannah Kinder has been on the “A” Honor Roll for all of her four years in high school; will likely graduate in the top five percent of her class this spring; is a member of the National Honor Society; a member of the Future Business Leaders of America and Fellowship of Christian Athletes; and an active member of the Centenary United Methodist Church; and

Whereas, in 2007, Hannah Kinder earned the distinction of winning the state championships in the 100-meter and 200-meter freestyle swimming competition, and she is the Missouri state record holder in the 200-meter freestyle event and tied for the state records in the 50-meter freestyle event; and

Whereas, Hannah Kinder has been an All-State Swimmer for three consecutive years, and in 2007, she led her high school team to its highest finish at the state championships in eight years; and

Whereas, Hannah Kinder was a Junior National finalist, placing seventh in the 100-meter freestyle; and

Whereas, Hannah Kinder is a United States Sectional Champion, winning the 500-meter freestyle, ranked in the top sixteen nationally in her age group for the 50-meter freestyle, and she swept all of the freestyle events at the 2005 AAU Junior Olympics in New Orleans; and

Whereas, Hannah Kinder has been recruited by more than fifteen Division I universities for her swimming and has now entered into an understanding with Texas A&M University, nationally ranked fifth in women’s swimming for most of the year, where she plans to continue her education this fall; and

Whereas, Hannah Kinder is the beloved daughter of Mark and Barbara Kinder:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join to congratulate Hannah Kinder on her many and varied accomplishments; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Hannah Kinder.
